In a divided world,
how can we come together?

When you've never heard other people's stories or voices – or even your own – connections can be hard to find.

At In Full Color, we believe...

Art creates empathy.
Empathy creates change.

In Full Color helps women of color share their stories in their voices.

This is a storytelling revolution we call Authentic Representation.

Our performances, classes and workshops connect learners of all genders and colors with people who are not like them.

We also provide real, honest representation for those who feel unseen and unheard.

We educate, entertain, and engage.

Our work gives a divided world
means of connection.

THE ORGANIZATION

In Full Color features work by women and other people of marginalized genders from backgrounds of color:

- Black
- Hispanic/Latinx
- Middle Eastern and Arab
- Asian
- Indigenous and Native American
- Biracial and Multiracial

We started producing work in 2015 and were incorporated in 2017 in Jersey City, N.J. by Summer Dawn Reyes, a woman of Asian and Hispanic descent.

We've received numerous awards for our work including two commendations from the New Jersey State Assembly plus the first Jersey City Arts Council award in the Performing Arts --->>

THE ARTISTS

Our performers and educators represent the least heard voices in America.

200

Artists Served

Since 2015, we've created opportunities for about 200 artists and counting

13 States

Our artists are from New Jersey, New York, California and 10 more states

90% BIPOC

People of color make up 90% of our roster; women make up 83%

(The others are white or male allies in volunteer/supporting roles)

16% LGBTQ+

At least 16% of our artists identify as queer – this includes gender non-binary, gender fluid and trans artists

We also serve the disabled community, undocumented folx and immigrants

Our roster is diverse, and ever-expanding.

LISTENING

Our artists share unique experiences through monologues, poems and stories. Some are hilarious, others heart-wrenching. All are powerful.

INTERACTING

Our performances and workshops include brave, fruitful discussions facilitated by professionals. People get to ask questions, show love and build community.

THE AUDIENCE

Our audiences connect by...

CREATING

We create opportunities for people of all backgrounds to share their own stories and embrace their identities.

THE AUDIENCE

Our work greatly benefits scholars studying the following:

HUMANITIES

- African and Black Diaspora Studies
- Asian Studies (East, South and Asian-American)
- Ethics, Policy and Social Justice
- Latinx and Latin-American Studies
- LGBTQ+ Studies
- Middle Eastern and Arab Studies
- Political Science
- Sociology
- Urban Studies
- Women and Gender Studies

ARTS

- Acting, Drama and Theatre
- Comparative Literature
- Creative Writing
- English

THE ART

Our artists perform monologues and poems – and sometimes even songs!

Their work is inspired by real issues that impact women of color. Here are some of the diverse topics we cover.

Pieces range from comedic to dramatic and average 5 minutes in length.

Content available for all ages.

THE STORY

I started In Full Color for fun as an actor who wanted better roles and knew other women of color did too. I figured, let's write our own stories! Then I discovered that our work sparked needed conversations, created empathy and inspired people to push for real change.

Today, our work is still fun, but it's also become so much deeper. We advocate for key social, racial and feminist issues. We empower women to be their best selves.

We're leading a storytelling revolution.

FAQ's

Help! I love your programs, but my department has a small budget.

Partner with other departments, student life, student government, cultural clubs, arts programs, sororities/fraternities, parent/alumni associations and other affinity groups to pool funding. Your school's women's center will also probably want to help!

I'm not sure enough students will attend. What can I do?

Ask relevant faculty to offer extra credit for attending -- we have a digital sign-in system to help verify student participation! Also, again, partnering with other groups helps a lot!

Is your programming only for women of color?

We welcome learners of all genders and colors!

Let's make a connection!

If you believe In Full Color's performers and educators can help your community come together, ask about booking your event today.

Virtual bookings available all year-round.
In-person events to resume after COVID-19.
